WELCOME TO THE FETISH WHERE MEN

WORDS HOLLY GRIGG-SPALL

In a hotel function room, a group of women dressed in skirts, dresses and jeans giggle among themselves, as they queue up to draw folded pieces of paper from a bowl. One by one, the women unfold their piece of paper to reveal the name of a naked man standing in a line on the other side of the room. Each woman walks over to their male match and starts talking dirty to them, pushing up their breasts, pouting their lips and using any other technique they can to get their man hard – without touching him. The cheering and laughter in the room is deafening, and rises to fever pitch as each dick throbs to an erection.

The game is called Minute-Man, and it's just one activity at a CFNM event. The acronym stands for Clothed Female Naked Male and, whether acted out at parties like this, or in adult movies, the premise is the same – the girls keep their clothes on, and the guys take theirs off. The term was invented by Brad, who founded CFNM forum Sensations4women.com, and organises large-scale events like this in California. He thinks the trend grew from the FemDom fetish – female domination over submissive men – and believes real CFNM focuses on the desires of women, putting them in total control. In his view, CFNM is a response to the popularity of what could be called CMNF – clothed male, naked female – if it weren't so pervasive. Clothed men look at naked women all the time in standard pornography, strip clubs, advertising and mainstream movies. CFNM is a way of turning porn conventions upside-down.

(And below) CFNM games in a bedroom scene

“In the 1990s, a group of famous female authors in San Francisco held Naked Slaveboy Tea Parties. The women stayed clothed, and were served by naked butlers wearing only shoes, gloves and a bowtie, who could only speak when spoken to,” Brad explains, “These have grown to become ‘tea party societies’. I organise and attend two different kinds of CFNM parties. There’s a play party, which is for men and women to enjoy playing, with the emphasis on male nudity as the source of fun, and there’s a pray party where the men worship the women, and the emphasis is on female superiority.”

Hard games

But it's not just women who get off on CFNM. As unpaid entertainment at all-female house parties, CFNM fan Bruce fulfils his submissive fantasies. At a more reserved event Bruce might be asked to serve the women snacks and drinks, cook a three-course meal, or give foot massages – all in the nude. At rowdier parties, he'll be the subject of women's games.

“At most parties, there’s a game of penis ring-toss, where the women take turns to see who can get the most rings on my hard dick,” he says. “Then we play blind man’s bluff, where the women are blindfolded and see who can unwrap and put a condom on me the fastest. I also enjoy penis-decorating contests. I bring out ribbons, stickers and paper, and the women have ten minutes to dress my dick up, before we all vote for who did the best job. I’m always → on the look-out for women who like these kind of parties – they’re not easy to find, but I like to go to them as often as possible.”

Some couples also enjoy CFNM games. Husband and wife Seth and Rebecca hold small CFNM events with friends, where Seth puts on a strip show. Rebecca explains: “One night recently we had our divorced neighbour over and a good friend, and my husband danced for us ladies several times that night while we remained clothed. Seth has also posed for figure drawing, masturbated in front of us, allowed us to measure his penis and played a prop in a girls-only game of X-rated charades. Not all of my friends know about our games, but most who do think it’s hilarious.”

Seth admits that the women’s desire makes him horny. “I like to see girls naked, it turns me on, so I assume that if I’m the naked guy the girls find me sexy. The girls who flirt with me when I’m dressed turn me on the most. I don’t think it’s sexy to just flash a bunch of girls, it’s only hot if they’re into it and want to see, otherwise it’s creepy and gross. Our parties are like all-night foreplay and then the sex with my wife later that night is great.”

The full monty

But CFNM is not only about events – many websites are devoted to it. Charlie Johnson, who founded PureCFNM.com, traces its increasing popularity to drunken hen nights and male strip shows.

“Hen nights with strippers have groups of dressed-up women, going crazy for naked guys and their cocks,” Charlie explains. “They’re ogling men who are exposed and vulnerable. Ordinary guys started fantasising about being in that position, about being subject to all those examining, desiring females. CFNM went from hen nights, to videos of these hen nights – where the women are just looking, laughing and having fun – to videos of women sucking or jerking off a guy who wouldn’t come, to scenes that end in a cumshot, like the ones I make for PureCFNM.”

Sites such as Dancingbear.com and LoverboysUSA.com provide footage from out-of-control hen nights and male strip shows, showing girls groping and grabbing guys in front of their friends. Charlie creates hundreds of CFNM movies for his site and is constantly coming up with new scenarios to capture the imagination of his audience – most of which involve less women than your average bachelorette party, realistic scenarios, and an element of surprise.

“A typical scene is a girl accidentally walking in on a guy having a wank, and then finding it interesting and wanting to take over, or a guy getting caught spying on girls in a changing room, so they strip him as payback,” he reveals.

In the porn industry, CFNM is seen as a good way for a new girl to experience a shoot and see if she wants to do anything more. Agencies often send Charlie glamour models just starting out in porn, or he uses amateurs who want to do it for fun. The guys are often amateurs who fancy exploring their fantasies. It works well for Charlie.

“We don’t use 12-inch porn studs because the guys watching the videos want to believe it could be them, and think, ‘Well, the girl next door really did nearly catch me having a wank that time,’” says Charlie. “In mainstream porn, can the guy watching it really imagine himself being called out to fix a washing machine and ending up fucking Jenna Jameson? You can’t fake my kind of realism. The guy looks nervous, because he is, and then he explodes everywhere in a few minutes because he’s so excited, and the viewer thinks, ‘Yeah, that would’ve been me blowing my load with all those gorgeous girls playing with me.’”

Girls on film

UK adult star Harmony Hex regularly performs in CFNM movies, and says they’re less work than conventional pornos. “In one film I shot, a guy was caught having phone sex, by his female housemates. We stripped him and gave him a hand-job, swapping when our arms got too tired,” Harmony explains. “The scene ended with us making him cum and laughing at him. It’s easier than other types of porn – and fun – but it does give you one aching arm!”

And sometimes fans make their own movies. CFNM forum Thewalnutwalk.com is run by a group of women, who create lists of ridiculous tasks – such as naked gardening – for eager men to perform. The men do the tasks, and then relate their humiliation in detail to everyone on the discussion board, also posting photos and videos. Sometimes parties are arranged through the connections made by these games.

Forum user Richard gets off on punishment scenarios. “The theme of CFNM is pompous, authoritarian or predatory males being brought down to size, sometimes quite literally, by being stripped off and gazed at – usually with awe or amusement,” says Richard. “I enjoy the revenge scenarios, where an overbearing → boss or cheating lover is punished by being forced to get naked and brought to orgasm by a group of women.”

But for some online users, the appeal of CFNM is waning as the trend becomes more popular. Blogger TC collates CFNM photos and movies at Allthingscfnm.com, and is described by Charlie as a “super-fan”. Up-and-coming CFNM directors use his site to find out what’s hot and what’s not. TC’s upset that the hardcore aspect of the fetish is being lost as filmmakers try to appeal to the average male porn consumer.

“I think there’s enough objectification of women’s bodies. Unfortunately online CFNM is becoming more mainstream because sites are trying to make a profit from the majority of porn consumers – that is, straight men who want to see naked women having hardcore sex,” he says. “For example, there used to be a lot of fully-clothed sex sites, and now there’s just one or two. And although I can enjoy accidental CFNM scenes in mainstream porn, my enjoyment is ruined once the women get naked.”
